WHAT IS ECONOMY IN CLOTHES BUYING?

Real economy is buying what will do you the most good at the least price. Buying "cheaply" is not always economy—many times it is money wasted. In clothes, this is particularly true. "Cheap" clothes are cheap at any price. They are made to be sold cheap. Can you afford this?

Before you decide—try on our smart suit models upon merit—to fit and give long service.

TUMOR OF FOUR YEARS GROWTH

Removed by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

South Bend, Ind.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound removed my four years' growth, which three of the best physicians declared I had. They said that only an operation could help me. I am very glad that I followed a friend's advice and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, for it has made me a strong and well woman, and I shall recommend it as long as I live."—MRS. MAY FAY, Lindley Ind.

One of the greatest triumphs of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the conquering of woman's dread enemy—tumor. If you have mysterious swellings, inflammation, ulceration or displacement, don't wait for time to confirm your fears and go through the horrors of a hospital operation, but try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and such unquestionable testimony as the above proves the value of this famous remedy, and should give confidence and hope to every sick woman.

If you would like special advice about your case write a confidential letter to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

WESTPORT

Mr. and Mrs. Marchand have closed their residence and gone to Philadelphia.

The sewer question is still being quietly talked about. Many think it would be a good thing for the town to have a system of sewers.

Miss Julia Wakeman intends to pass the winter on Turkey Hill.

Miss Mary Totten is teaching in the Black Rock school.

Frank N. Taylor has gone to New Hampshire to escape the hay fever.

It is said a Bridgeport company has offered to build the proposed sewers for $14,000.

The Saugatuck river is now supposed to be the source of malaria in town, owing to the fact that a good deal of Main street sewerage finds its way into it. The proposition to have the new system of sewers empty into the same river will not improve conditions.

It still remains true, as has been announced for the past several times, that Andrew Carnegie will give the Methodist church money to help out in buying an organ if the rest of the money needed can be raised at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hyatt lay their attack of malaria to moving into the new town hall before it was quite dry. They do not blame the innocent Saugatuck river.

It is announced that the Sunday closing proposition has died a natural death.

There are people who think automobiles go through town at a speed of 40 miles an hour. The occupants are in a hurry to get to New York to see the great celebration.

Miss Eleanor Taylor has gone to Oberlin, O., to resume her college studies.

Rev. Kenneth Mackenzie has so far improved in health that he is able to be about town.

A large gospel car has arrived in town. It is drawn about by four horses.

Irving Bradley of Compo recently had the misfortune to break one of his legs.

At the recent Improvement fair in town over $500 was cleared. This will buy quite a stretch of sidewalk.

Friday last the big gospel wagon which has occupied a vacant lot near from the post office, started on its journey, going to Southport. It was drawn by two pious horses, and a dog followed behind. It has small wheels, and made but slow progress. It resembles one of the touring or gypsy camping out wagons not unfrequently seen in England. Now that the tent and the wagon have departed, regular services will be held in the churches.

Natalie and Marjorie Mitchell are visiting an aunt in New Haven.

Frank N. Taylor has returned from New Hampshire, pretty well cured of his hay fever.

Mrs. H. Daniel has arrived in Texas where she has gone to spend the winter.

It is thought the peach season, which has been a good one, will end this week.

Rev. A. A. Buckway of New York has been visiting in town.

A large number of our people went to New York on Saturday to witness the naval parade and review.

The new concrete sidewalk on Riverside avenue, past the residence of H. C. Woodworth, has been completed.

Bessie Tredwell is going to the Normal school at Danbury.

The elector's oath was administered to quite a large number of new citizens on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyden are living in the Gershom Bradley house.

It was supposed that the beginning that when young Harold Spicer went away with Richard Wakeman, who stole a horse and wagon and left town, that he would in time tire of the adventure and return. As he was but 14 years old, and not used to a hard life on the road, no one wonders that he has come home, filled with true stories of wild adventure in York State. He has had all the hunting of Indians he wishes for. Wakeman, who induced him to go along, still manages to keep in hiding.

Town Clerk Hyatt was visiting in Fairfield on Friday.

Further O'Connor of Stratford has been a recent guest in town at the rectory of the Church of the Assumption. A few days ago the officials of the town took a shore dinner at Dorion's Point.

Samuel Hodge has moved his family to Cranbury.

Miss Goding, a sister of Mrs. Wesley Sherwood, on Sherwood's Island, is to be married in Norwalk on Oct. 14 to George E. Satain, an ex-Councilman of the city.

William Krause is one of our young men who has entered Yale college. It is denied that there will be a moving picture show given at the old Catholic church.

There will be a caucus of the Republican party next Friday evening in the town hall. It is expected that Oscar Smith will be nominated for First Selectman.

Quite a number of the employees at the Saugatuck depot resigned their positions last week, on the ground that not sufficient help is employed at the station for the work which needs to be done.

The station master, E. A. Gauchet, and several of the hands, including Messrs. Parcells, Henry Rider and Percy Sturges, are among those who have left.

STRATFORD

The play given by the Criterions at Grange hall was so good, and well rendered, that the company already has a number of engagements for the future.

There is not much politics in town this year, and few if any changes are expected in the town officers. Two or three men have places in view which they are looking at with hungry eyes, but it is expected the election will go as it has for the past 37 years—in favor of those nominated by the majority party.

Those who took part in the Japanese pantomime at the Grange on Saturday evening were Miss Alice Wakelee, Miss Beatrice Derby, Mrs. Nellie Wheeler and Messrs. Isaac Smith, George Jacoe, Nathan Welles, George McDonald, Mrs. Fred Palmer and Miss Gertrude Avery at the piano.

Mr. Reed's clerk at the market, William Curtis, is having a second attack of blood poisoning.

On the evening of Friday, Oct. 1st, the Democrats will hold a caucus.

The next meeting of the Sunday School teachers will be at the call of the committee which has been appointed to secure a teacher.

The "Blind Evangelist," Rev. W. H. Elhers, of New York, spoke at the Bannan Mission yesterday.

Sheriff Staggs has been hunting for a vicious dog which has caused terror in the Hollister Heights district, but the animal was not to be found.

The real live prince who was expected to visit our village has not arrived.

Mr. Donald Falken is this week in Rochester, N. Y., on a business trip in the interest of the American Palace Car Company.

The people of Devon are rejoicing over the fact that two hydrants have been placed in that section of the town.

Thus far Mr. J. Henry Blakeman has sent more than 1,000 baskets of his home grown peaches to the market.

It is said our local Red Men have presented that traveling blanket to the town of the tribe of Stamford.

Anna Stewart, Beatrice Derby, Anna Spaulding, and Ruby Avery, were members of the quadrille which danced on Saturday evening at Grange hall.

Mr. William B. McCarthy has had the hillroad at the eastern end of Washington bridge oiled at his own expense.

There is rumor that Messrs. James Bunnell and Fred Nettleton will make an effort to get a place on the board of selectmen for the ensuing fiscal year.

Miss Minnie Beers is having a delightful vacation up Milford way. She is the popular attendant at the Hanson news agency.

Six sons and three daughters were born in town during the month of August.

There were but four deaths in town during August, the oldest being 84 years and the youngest 1 day.

Only one man had the courage to defy the fashion and take a wife in August—Mr. William Carey who married Florence Baxter.

A bag of oats has been dropped in town which any one can have by picking them up and proving property.

To-morrow evening Azalia chapter holds a regular meeting.

William E. Staggs will furnish a concrete blocks for the new chapel which is to be built at Devon.

Those who have missed attending the fair for St. James' church, have an opportunity to go this evening and to-morrow night. And every one should take a 50 cent chance on the two building lots which are offered.

Another opportunity of the kind will seldom occur.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Edgar N. Bayless, a merchant of Robinsonville, Del., wrote: "About two years ago I was thin and sick, and coughed all the time and I did not have consumption, it was near to it. I commenced using Foley's Honey and Tar, and it stopped my cough, and I am now entirely well, and have gained twenty-five pounds, all due to the good results from taking Foley's Honey and Tar." F. B. Brill, local agent.

Fell From Trolley Dies in Hospital

Meriden, Sept. 27.—When stepping off an East Main street trolley yesterday afternoon Mrs. Augusta K. Liedtke, aged 61, lost her balance and fell to the ground, striking on her head and sustaining a cerebral hemorrhage. She died at the City Hospital five hours later.

SARAH'S GRANDDAUGHTER

MARRIES AN AMERICAN

Versailles, France, Sept. 27.—Mlle. Simone Bernhardt, the granddaughter of Mme. Sarah Bernhardt, was married yesterday to Edgar S. Gross, eldest son of Henry B. Gross, formerly of Philadelphia. The ceremony was very private owing to the ill-health of the bride's mother.

KILLED BY TROLLEY CAR

Torrington, Sept. 27.—James W. Foley was struck by a trolley car on Friday night in Daytonville and sustained injuries which he died Saturday. According to the testimony of Motorman Norman Smart the man was staggering along the road a few feet from the track as the car approached, when he suddenly lurched and fell across the rail. The car struck the man, breaking his left arm and fracturing several ribs.

According to the Federal Bureau of Entomology the work done by the bees of the country in fertilizing blossoms of fruit trees alone is worth more than the $20,000,000 worth of honey that they produce each year.
